Thinking Out Loud

(By H. M. L.)

There we've gone and done it! Hoist by our own petard, whatever that means. Poked fun at a fellow scribe, and in the following paragraph committed the error for which the scribe was ridiculed. Yes, it was an associations of physicians referred to in the last issue of the Nugget. They do not advertise indivividually, and of course, that's their business, ethical or not. As an association, however, they do seek publicity the general tener of which is: "See your physician," instead of "See me." All for the good of the order rather than the individual membership.

The line between advertising and news is extremely hard to define. Most publishers will tell you that good advertising is good news to innumerable people. On the one hand there is a very large part of the news that is good advertising. A physician takes his Sabbatical year in Vienna. On his return he drops into the editor's shop and tells what a great time he had in the clinic there in some months of study. The great international surgeon Snicklefritz, removed a woman's stomach and substituted a sheep's. A successful operation. The newspaper plays this up on the first page. Here was a local eye-witness to a remarkable operation. Speculation runs fancy free through the community. Did the patient thereby become ruminant in her habits. If subsequently there were children born to her, would they be favorably predisposed to spinach? Ribaldry runs riot with the announcement. But thoughful people think well of the physician who uses his vacation to learn the latest wrinkles in surgery. His practice grows as a result, all because of the advertising in the news. And it cost nothing but a pleasant half hour of chat with the editor.

On the other hand, is the merchant who sells commodities rather than service. Frocks from Paris, like surgeons who study in Vienna, have a very human appeal. The merchant, however, takes his space in the newspaper and pays for it. He has purchased the right to say whatever is true of the new frocks and may illustrate them with alluring pictures with special appeal to women.

Most people, men or women, are more concerned with their exteriors, than their interiors. The latter are hermetically sealed and concealed as it were, to all except an expert surgeon, while exteriors are all too apparent. Clothes are made to reveal perfections or conceal imperfections, as the needs of human vanity dictate. Only the nudists have become utterly frank, and from the point of view of advertising profit, except for sun lotions, they register blank. But for those who serve human interiors as well as exteriors advertising is their sina qua non, whether paid for or not. Both must and do have it.

We refuse to criticize the professional man whose ethics forbid his advertising and paying for it. If he is too dignified to advertise we are too dignified to make a pother about it. But we have already pointed out that he does advertise and we admire him for doing so. The man who has more than usual success in healing human ills, will have more clients, because his grateful patients will, by word of mouth, advertise him, even if a churlish editor should refuse to chronicle his victories over death.

Sometimes we do venture this opinion, that any physician who attains to eminence in his community, through word of mouth advertising, could probably greatly enlarge his sphere of human service if only the ethics of his profession permitted him to spread the word abroad by newspaper advertising. The fact that mountebands and quacks use paid advertising in lieu of personal training and ability to build a practice, usually ephemeral, is beside the point. Men of that stamp should be rigorously barred from practicing medicine or anything else affecting public health. Incidentally, newspapers that sell space to frauds of this or any other kind, compound the frauds and are as venal as the advertiser.

Word of mouth advertising is the oldest form and probably the most effective of any advertising, but newspaper advertising will greatly increase the demand for goods or services if intelligently, consistently and honestly employed. The measure of success in any vocation is invariably the measure of advertising that built it, whether the advertising cost nothing or much.

SHARP GAIN IN FARM PRODUCTS PRICE INDEX

SAN FRANCISCO, April 29.—The Bank of America reports that the index of prices received by farmers in California for twenty-four California products during March 1935 was 91 percent of the July 1910-June 1915 average. This is the same high point reached by the index in the previous month of February. With the exception of 1934 and 1935, the month of March has shown a decrease from February in every year since 1925. An increase of 2.9 percent was noted from February to March in 1934 while in 1933 the month of March declined 1.2 percent from the previous month. In 1932, March showed a decrease of 7.2 percent from the farm price level recorded in the month of February, while in 1931 there was a decline of .1 percent from February to March. Declines of .3 percent and 4.6 percent were registered from February to March in 1930 and 1929, respectively.

The March 1935 index was 14 points, or 18.2 percent, higher than the March 1934 index. A gain of 33.8 points (59.1 percent) was registered in the level of the index during March this year compared with the same month in 1933, while an increase of 17.9 points (24.5 percent) was noted over March 1932. March 1935 likewise, showed a slight gain of .6 points (.4 percent) over the level of farm prices for California in March 1931.

California's farm price level during March 1935 was 34.5 points, or 61.1 percent, above the all time low registered in April 1933.

The California farm price index represents the level of prices paid to California farmers for the twenty-four specific following commodities: Beef cattle, veal calves, hogs, sheep, lambs, market milk, butterfat, butter, eggs, chickens, wool, horses, wheat, barley, oats, corn, hay, alfalfa cotton, potatoes, dry beans, oranges, lemons, apples.

BANQUET AND PROGRAM I. O. O. F. ANNIVERSARY

Oustomah Lodge I. O. O. F. No. 16 and the Rebekahs celebrated the 116 anniversary of the order with a banquet and social time Saturday night.

Members and their families banqueted at 6:30 in the banquet hall. The delicious repast was greatly enjoyed by all.

After the banquet they repaired to the main hall and enjoyed the fine program which was presented.

Judge George L. Jones gave a most interesting talk about the I. O. O. F. lodge, and its good work.

The rest of the program follows:

Vocal duet by Zilva and Jean Hansen, accompanied by Audrey Davis; Piano solos by Audrey Davis; Monologue by Mrs. E. L. Towle; accordion solos by Bob James; Violin solos by Ernest Carnes.

Each number on the program was heartily encored. Mrs. Towle's monologue was full of side-splitting humor. It was Bob James' first public appearance. The musical numbers by the young girls met with much applause and the fine violin playing of Ernest Carnes was greatly appreciated.

After the program the "grown-ups"* played cards and the young people danced.

Both men have been treated at the county hospital. Both men are in custody but no immediate action will be taken until it is known whether Oregon authorities will extradite Jones.

SCOUTS AND CUBS FIELD DAY MAY 4

The Tahoe Area Council program for the Cubs and Scouts under its jurisdiction will culminate its spring activities with a Field Day for the Cubs and the annual spring Camporee for the Scouts. Summer activities will include troop and council camps and the National Jamboree.

This is the first Cub Field Day held in the Council for the 160 cubs of the seven Packs in the Area and will be held on the athletic field of the Placer Union high school Saturday, May 4. The program under the direction of Cubmaster Fred Knudsen, will start at 2:15 p. m. with Cub opening ceremonies and will include baseball, various games and Cub activities.

The Spring Camporee for the Patrols of Scouts will be held at the Placer Country Club near Auburn Saturday afternoon and Sunday May 18th and 19th and will feature in addition to the regular competition and demonstrations in camping, cooking and patrol organization a two-day swimming program. Only those Patrols receiving an "A" rating at this Camporee will be privileged to attend the Northern California Camporee at Richmond in October. It is expected that the great interest of the troops in this spring meeting will again show an increased attendance over last year.

Tuesday, April 30th has been selected for a meeting of the executive board of the Tahoe Area Council in Auburn to approve of the council activities of the recent months and sanction the program outlined for this summer and the camp activities of Camp Pahatsi on Kilbourne lake. While there is still eight feet of snow at Pahatsi it is hoped that the advance party to prepare camp can get in by the middle of June.

The same evening the Jamboree committee will meet with the executive board and will endeavor to select the leadership for the Jamboree troop from the leadership applications which have been called in for that date. At that time definite word should be at hand on the exact routing of our special train. Type of pack and tenting will also be decided. Plans will be made for several meetings of the Jamboree troop during the next two months.

Mr. Fraser miraculously escaped death Wednesday evening on the Downieville highway when the front spring broke on his car letting the weight of the machine down on the tires which jerked them sidewise, the car plunging over a 200 foot embankment cutting off a tree and rolling over and over down the mountainside with him in it. The stage driver who brought Mr. Fraser's personal effects to the road stated the car was almost like a pile of kindling wood.

A Stitch in Time

(Contributed)

Back in the old days when a corner was not a corner unless there was a saloon on it, the nation was warned that continued abuse of the drinking privilege would result in a law prohibiting any and all use of alcohol for internal purposes.

And the nation only laughed derisively, and drowned the admonitory voices in a bedlam of banging beer mugs.

What happened after that is now history—the miserable failure of the "noble experiment," arbitrary prohibition.

Today there is a deadly parallel in another type of threatened arbitrary legislation reported recently in Motor, the national automobile magazine.

It is that unless we find some way to check the alarming increase in traffic deaths, laws will be sought to compel manufacturers to build vehicles incapable of high speed. Imagine that! Autos which simply couldn't go over 40, for example, or 50 at the most.

But surely, you say, that is ridiculous—it couldn't happen. Well, those bewhiskered gentlemen of the corner saloon era were just as certain that the idea of a law to prohibit drinking was utterly ridiculous. But the law came, and hung on for quite some time.

And regardless of the progress of the speed-checking proposal, indignation over the part that drunken driving plays in the mounting traffic toll may help to bring back the very same eighteenth amendment itself. For example in California last year, 4567 out of the state's unprecedented total of 32,739 motor accidents involved persons who had been drinking.

News stories of late have been chronicling increased activity of prohibition organizations aroused by those and similar figures over the nation.

It looks as though we shall have to clamp down on our speeders and our drinking drivers before legislation regulating our most intimate personal behavior clamps down on us again.

TIME TO THINK OF GAS RANGES

"Gas Range Week" officially begins Saturday, April 27, throughout the state under the sponsorship of the Gas Apliance Society of California.

The last word in modern gas ranges with their automatc features, new smokeless boilers, insulated ovens, and oven clock controls will be displayed in the principal furniture and appliance stores throughout the state, and plans being launched by the executive committee of the society call for many special campaign features of interest to California housewives.

Many stores are planning model kitchen demonstrations and making special provision for advising the housewives on modernizing the "heart of the home" — that room where she prepares the family meals. The salesmen will gladly give visitors authoritative information on reliable gas appliances.

As a special feature of the week members of the Gas Apliance Society to include a $16.00 oven heat regulator on all kitchen heater types of gas ranges priced at $125.00 or more or on straight gas types of ranges priced at $96.00 or more, without extra accessories.

ANSON WEEKS AT RAINBOW GARDENS

"On with the dancin,' Anson," the introduction Walter Winchell used for the popular Pacific coast maestro, Anson Weeks, has become a national slogan. He first became popular on the national hook-up of the Lucky Strike "Magic Carpet" program.

There is a reosan for his popularity. Kitness his case. When Weeks was a youngster, he heard discussions on what folks like in music. He heard some say it was the classical that would live; he heard others say that popular hits in the tempt of the day would make a place in history.

His irrevocable decision was that in dance music, folks wanted rythm more than anything else. Music that can be danced to, perfect rythm, and Aanson Weeks' music are anonymous.

Listed among his hits of the day have been "Tuck Me To Sleep," "I'm Writing You This Melody," "Sorry," "Senorita," "New Moon," "Dream Music," and "Broken Toy." Hear these at Rainbow Gardens. April 30.

VERDICT FOR N. I. D. WILL BE APPEALED

Following the verdict of the jury Friday evening in the case of Nevada Irrigation district against the Pacific Gas & Electric company, in which the plaintiff was awerded $199,341.41 claimed for water delivered to the defendant in 1927-28, attorneys for the P. G. & E. served notice of appeal.

The plaintiff receives the exact amount demanded, but is denied interest asked.

5 S. P. TRAINS EAST TO BE COMPLETELY AIR-CONDITIONED

Going East this summer? If you travel Southern Pacific you'll enjoy a luxury that even the homes of millionaires do not have. Our five finest trains to the East will be AIR-COOLED and AIR-CONDITIONED from stem to stern—Pullmans, tourist sleeping cars, reclining chair cars, coaches, dining cars, club and observation cars—every single car! No matter what the weather may be—inside an air-conditioned car the air is always cool and clean, free of dust and dirt.

Right now most of the cars are air-conditioned on the Overland Limited and Pacific Limited (San Francisco - Chicago), Sunset Limited (Los Angeles-New Orleans), Golden State Limited (Los Angeles-Chicago) and Cascade (San Francisco-Portland). BY MAY 15 all cars on each of these five trains will have the new improvement.

AIR-CONDITIONED CARS ON LOCAL TRAINS, TOO!

You can travel in air-cooled comfort to many points on the Pacific Coast, too; for some of our trains between San Francisco, Los Angeles and Portland have air-conditioned cars.

HOW TO SEE TWICE AS MUCH

Our leading trains approach the East through four entirely different parts of the country. You'll see twice as much of the country and make a roundtrip that's really round.

MEXICO

WEEKLY COMMENT

BY

Christian Andersen

A contemporary writer in a recent column gave eulogy upon a certain decedent who had during the depression tumbled to the foot of the economic ledder. As he fell from the top he seems to have caught on an occasional rung. But each rung downward path seemed to take toll of his otherwise splendid morale. By the time he had reached the bottom there was not strength enough to make another pull upward and he died in obscurity. if not in want.

There have been thousands of such splendid men who have found peace in death.

Not to mention the great festival at Alleghany, May 11 would be very much amiss, therefore let me tell you, and you, and especially you, that Alleghany will present their world premier auto show—then to add sugar to the entertainment pie there will be the comedy "Gay" presented by an able cast and the "piece d' resistance" an all night dance to the dreamy strains of Art Nelson's orchestra. Why all this I hear you ask. It is Alleghany's bow to Spring and the New Deal. It will be a gala occasion.

E. Clampus Vitus. Am I the only one who would like to know the true meaning of this magic phrase?

I joined a lodge once and there was in the initiation ritual a lung test. The candidate must blow into an imposing looking machine, when the cheeks were properly inflated with air some one pulled a lever, and presto, masses of flour flew into his face filling eyes, mouth and nose with the breath-taking white stuff. Life sometimes is like that, you blow perfectly and the effect is anything but comedy. But then "hope dwells eternal in the human breast."

I made a boat for Erik and the launching was most auspicious. It had sails and everything. Came dinner call and on the way home Pal, the new dog, became frisky, pouncing hither and yon in fun. Suddenly his massive puppy feet made a swipe and the masts and sail was hanging limp, broken. Right then the captain of the boat did the undignified lachrymosia which is contrary to all the traditions of the sea. But with the aid of Boatswain Marilyn and my resourceful repair job the boat was soon seaworthy again.

"THE LITTLE MINISTER" TUESDAY AND THURSDAY

Tonight will be the last showing of the brilliant comedy-drama "Trans-atlantic Merry-Go-Round" at the Nevada Theatre. A palatial ocean liner provides the setting for the story of mystery, romance and laughter on the high seas. Jack Benny, Nancy Carroll, and Gene Raymond have the featured roles. The picture also has a new lot of song hits which are guaranteed to set the audience humming.

On Tuesday and Thursday Sir James Barrie's immortal love story, "The Little Minister" will be shown on the Nevada Theatre screen. Katherine Hepburn has the role of the mercurial, alluring, gypsy girl Babbie, while John Beal takes the part of The Little Minister in the Scotch town, who finds himself torn between love for the wild and outlawed gypsy girl, and his duties to his church and parishoners.
